

Congratulation to Ellie Pribble for winning the ACTE Region II “Teacher of the Year” Award

Ellie Pribble, the Health Sciences Instructor at Harrison ATC, received the Region II Teacher of the Year Award in Savanna, Georgia on September 26, 2009. Region II is comprised of the following 9 states: KY, TN, VA, NC, SC, GA, AL, FL and the Bahamas.

ACTE is The Association for Career and Technical Education. It is the largest national education association dedicated to preparing youth for careers in technical education. The core purpose of ATCE is to provide leadership in developing an educated, prepared, adaptable and competitive workforce.

The Teacher of the Year Award recognizes teachers who are providing outstanding career and technical education programs for youth in their respective fields and communities. Recipients of this award must have made significant contributions toward innovative, unique and novel programs that are serving to improve and promote career and technical education.

Ellie has been teaching at Harrison ATC for 23 years. She received the KY ACTE Teacher of the Year Award in August 2008. She will compete at the National ACTE level in Nashville, TN on November 20, 2009.

The NJATC selected Ellie Pribble as one of the two Visiting Scholars in 2006 for our National Training Institute. In 2007 she was invited to join the NTI Staff as a First Year Instructor. This year Ellie took on a new role at NTI as the Coordinator of Portfolio Development as well as teaching in the Fourth Year I Group.

The NJATC is honored to have Ellie Pribble as one of our elite Instructors.

Congratulations Ellie for your ACTE Region II Teacher of the Year Award and good luck as you compete at the National level.
